Personal Profile

A multi-cultural entrepreneur educated in Switzerland and the United States, Cyrill Eltschinger has over 15 years of experience working in the China market. He currently acts as strategic advisor to both commercial and government sectors on China market and various industry focused projects. Previously he led Softek China (formerly I.T. UNITED) for more than 10 years. Before that he was with Electronic Data Systems (EDS) for eight years, working on various assignments in Europe, the United States, and Asia-Pacific. It was with EDS that he first came to China as Head of Technical Infrastructure to establish and lead the nationwide information and communications systems and automation of General Motors.

EXECUTIVE SPEAKER PROFILE

Cyrill holds a Bachelor of Arts in Finance from the Texas A&M University and a certificate in Systems Engineering Development from EDS.

Anticipating the trend towards global IT outsourcing, he was one of the first to identify China as an emerging major player. In 1998, he and a group of former EDS colleagues founded I.T. UNITED, which became Softtek China in August 2007. The company today is one of the most trusted China-based outsourcing services providers with a reputation for delivering cost-effective IT solutions that make technology smarter, easier, and more productive.

Before joining the private sector, Cyrill was an Officer in an elite unit of the Swiss Special Forces. He is also an enthusiastic aviator and holds the first private pilot's license issued to a foreigner in China since 1949. In March 2008, the honorable Mayor of Beijing Mr. Guo Jinlong presented Cyrill with the Great Wall Friendship Award, the People's Government of Beijing Municipality's highest honor for foreign experts, for his outstanding contributions to Beijing's economic development. He was further recognized to run with the Olympic flame in China during the 2008 Beijing Olympics Torch Relay.

Executive Feedback: “Your talk was both informative and inspiration to the participants in our program. Your willingness to share your personal insights and your candid assessment of the challenges and opportunities for entrepreneurship in emerging economies was truly appreciated. I hope you could tell by the number and depth of the questions that the class was very interested in your talk!”

Letter of appreciation from MIT Sloan School Director David A. Weber
